FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

“Call Me Martha” Contest Registration Due June 15th

Show off your creative side by entering The Linn County Fair's "Call Me Martha Competition". Pit your skills against other crafty people by assembling a decorative item in 60 minutes using only the items supplied in a bag received at the beginning of the contest. Contestants must bring their own construction supplies. The Linn County Fair will supply the craft items to be used. Finished project will be judged on creativity, originality, neatness, and the number of items in the bag used.

The contestants may be an individual or a team of two individuals. The contest is open to school age or older. Any one under 13 years of age must work with an adult as a team. Registration is due on June 15th and is limited to 15 entries, first come, first serve basis.

The contest will take place on Friday, June 27th at 6pm as part of the fair's Community Day events.

Prizes will be given for first, second and third place. The creations will be on display through the remainder of the fair. Contestants may take their decorative item home at the end of the fair.
