

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Linn County Fair Association teams with Sched.org to Create Interactive 2014 Fair Schedule.

The 2014 version of The Linn County Fair website incorporates some new changes and content, including an interactive 2014 fair schedule using Sched.org program tools. The new schedule found at <http://thelinncountyfair.com/daily-schedule.html>, allows website viewers to view the schedule in many different ways. Viewers have the ability to create a user profile in which they can add different events to their profile schedule and can interact with other users as well.

“The new schedule allows website viewers to view The Linn County Fair schedule how they want to see it”, says Website Manager Kevin Banasik. “Users can view fair events by venue, by day, or even by class. This allows fairgoers to easily plan their fair experience.”

The 2014 The Linn County Fair schedule also allows users to create a calendar of events they wish to attend and upload that calendar into their personal planning tools including Facebook, and Gmail. The Linn County Fair Association this will allow fairgoers a quick and easy way to track what events they want to see at the fair so they don't miss anything!
